

PASCUA YAQUI TRIBE

EDUCATION DIVISION

May 1, 2009

Lios Em Chaniavu, as we come into another school year the Higher Education Assistance Program is patiently awaiting your applications for the upcoming Fall semester. Despite the economic conditions, we are excited that many of you have decided to continue your education and are thankful that the Pascua Yaqui Tribe can continue to support you in your academic endeavors.

In accordance with the Higher Education Assistance Program provisions of the Pascua Yaqui Tribal Code, funding is provided based on availability of funding (Section 100, A). Below is the funding for Fall 2009.

Community College Full-Time Students

Freshman $2000
Sophomore $2500

University Full-Time Students

Freshman $3500
Sophomore $4500
Junior $5500
Senior $6500

Graduate $3500

We will continue to provide assistance to our part time students to cover tuition and books only. Students on probation will be determined as noted in of the Higher Education Assistance Ordinance (Section 190).

Students and families are encouraged to work with the Yaqui Education Services Program for additional resources on funding opportunities such as the, Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to qualify for federal and state financial aid services. For further information on your file or Fall 2009 funding please contact: Tucson Office (520)879-5706 or the Guadalupe Office at (480)768-2082.

Respectfully,

Juanita L. Ayala
Interim Education Director
